Women's History Scotland are delighted to announce that the Annual Women's History Scotland Conference will this year take place on Friday 9 September at Glasgow Women's Library.

The Sue Innes Memorial Lecture will be given by

Zoë Fairbairns

<http://www.zoefairbairns.co.uk/index.htm>

Paper proposals are now welcomed on this year's theme of Feminisms: Histories, Ideas & Practice, including, but absolutely not limited to, the following (broadly defined) areas:

- Political, social and cultural activism
- Defining 'feminisms' and 'feminists' across history
- Feminisms at 'work' and in the workplace
- Feminism in popular culture and the arts
- Feminist approaches to the body, health and welfare
- Feminist approaches to sexualities and sexual identities
- Understanding violence from feminist perspectives
- The role of feminism in historical practice & methodology

We encourage submissions from those working on any period within the above time-span whose research complements the overarching conference theme. Proposals which have an international or transnational focus are especially welcomed and we particularly encourage submissions from postgraduate students.

Individual or co-authored abstracts of c.200 words (for 20-minute presentations) should be submitted as a word document attachment to whsconference2016@gmail.com no later, please, than the final deadline of Friday 1 July 2016. Please ensure to include author name, presentation title and affiliation.

All further queries regarding the conference can be directed to the conference email: whsconference2016@gmail.com
